Alrik and Slaine, King and Queen of the Mighty Outlands send our warmest greetings unto the populace of the Outlands. The feast season has come to an end and what a marvelous time of the year it was. From the far northern snows of the north, to the sandy and wind swept south, we have traveled long and far and seen the true beauty and honor of the Outlands and its populace. We would like to thank the Autocrats, the Cooks, the Servers, and everyone who made these events possible.

As winter comes to an end and makes way for the dawning of a new spring, the Outlands' bravest must gather to once again fight in Crown Tourney. On the 8th of March in the Shire of Gleann Medonach we request the presence of the Outlands' Mightiest warriors and their consorts to decide the next Heirs to the Stag throne. The format of the tournament shall be announced that morning before fighting commences. All warriors and consorts with arms passed must display them in the processional. All entrants must have sent in letters of intent and be a registered member. Any combatant must have a current green card. Bear in mind all you brave Outlanders who wish to fight in crown that the eyes of the kingdom and the Crown will be on you at all times. Fighters, you must fight with Chivalry, Integrity, and Bravery, all the things that make a man worthy to sit upon the Stag Throne. We will be watching from the thrones and upon the field, we as the crown reserve the right to remove any combatant should we feel he has dishonored himself or his opponent. Bring your best!! But remember that your honor, your lady's honor and the honor of your opponent are more important than winning. Good luck

Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings unto the Kingdom of the Outlands.

I wish to join with their Majesties to thank all who journeyed to the far lands of Atenveldt for Estrella War.

Crown Tournament is just days away in the Shire of Glenn Medonoch.

Spring is quickly approaching and many exciting things are happening. Watch this space as I will be sharing the information on things like the Background checks, Event Sites, and anything else that happens on the wide world know as the SCA.

I have added a deputy in charge of New Group Development. Baroness Leona Roy Colquhoun is now working with areas that want to join the outlands. Baroness Leona can be reached at deb_leona@yahoo.com.

On a personal note, as some of you may have heard, Mary and I will be moving away from the fair Barony of Fontaine dans Sable. Due to mundane matters we will be relocating to the Barony of Dragonsspine. We look forward to new adventures and new mundane challenges.

In service,

Duncan Alastair MacRae, OP

White Stag

I'd like to thank THL Angus, Plover Herald, THL Æðeluulf, Rampart Herald, Master Balthazar, Blue Iris Herald, and everyone else who contributed to the heraldic efforts at Estrella War - your works help make the Outlands look and sound good.

Mistress Francesca, Castle Herald, is currently seeking a successor. Castle Herald is responsible for processing heraldic submissions to create the Letter of Presentation. Candidates should be competent with computers, have internet access, be able to handle monthly deadlines, have basic knowledge of heraldry and the submissions process, and preferably be familiar with HTML. If you are interested, please contact myself and Mistress Francesca for more details.

Serving Crown and heraldry,

Marie de Blois

Minister of the Lists

Greetings fair Outlands!

It is with much joy that I greet you as we had a wonderful WAR! I would like to thank Duchess Katherine and Mistress Seuilla for coordinating the Outlands Prize Tournament. I would like to thank all of those who volunteered to help run lists at the Tournaments. I would like to thank everyone who helped me to have such an enjoyable time at War! If I missed any names that should have been mentioned in my thanks, I do apologize. I blame it on after war lag.

I look forward to the rest of this year. Do not forget Crown Tournament is coming soon. Get your reservations in now.

Yours in Service,

Bantiarna Searlaith inghean Roibeard

Minister of Arts & Sciences

Congratulations to all those who entered Estrella A&S, job well done and thank you for entering. Huzzah to our Outlands judges for taking the time to volunteer for this heavy task.

I would also like to give a special Thank You to Master Rhys for being the Estrella War Laurel. He provided and shared valuable information to both the Outlands and to the Estrella War Council, in which decisions were made over a year in advance for the A&S competition. Thank you for your time and wonderful knowledge.

I am still looking for a Northern A&S Deputy; please contact me if you are interested.

Kingdom A&S is upon us and the Barony of Dragonsspine will be hosting this wonderful event on April 12th. I encourage all to enter, judge or just come by to view some of the wonderful arts & sciences this Kingdom offers. Please see the event article for site information.

Pre-registration is required. Specifics regarding pre-registration can be found in the event article in this issue. The last day to pre-register will be Sunday, March 30th @ 11:00 PM. Rules for Kingdom A & S can be found along with the list of categories on the Kingdom A&S web page and later in this issue.

Entries must be on site and checked in by 9:30 am on the day of the event. Entry must be ready to be judged by 10 am.

We are always in need of judges, it seems that there is never enough, so if you are interested in judging, please contact me either by email or phone.

Please contact me if you have any questions specifically about the competition or judging.

Yours in Service,

M. Tana a l'Esprit Fort

Minister of Children

Unto the great populace of the Outlands does Lady Jayne Barber, send greetings.
2007 was a busy year regarding minors and youth activities in the SCA. In May 2007, new policies and sanctions were issued from Corporate regarding the "two deep rule" (2 unrelated adults required at each organized youth activity). New policy and sanctions were also issued for youth, who don't follow local groups' and local events' policies. In April 2007, Corporate decided there was a need for background checks for youth officers, and we expect the details for implementation in mid-February 2008. As of this writing, the expected the cost to our Kingdom will be about $50 per year for these background checks—a small price to pay.

For a few individuals and a few local groups, these new Corporate Policies stirred up a number of feelings, discussions, questions and concerns. In four days in July, there were over 150 emails on the Outlands discussion list about youth issues and these new policies. To address some of the questions and for clarification, I created and emailed to various discussion lists a two page document, listing the three Corporate handbooks, several Corporate memorandums and four Outlands policies, laws and handbooks that govern youth, minor waivers and youth activities in the SCA as well as those online resources available.

For those who feel that our youth activities are just a babysitting service, I know that our youth activity coordinators put on many, many educational activities these last few years, that are almost all period-related. Parents are invited and encouraged to take part with their youth. We also encouraged the inclusion of our youth in many, many service opportunities these past few years, as well as asking our A&S teachers to let our youth know that they are welcome in their A&S classes.

Change is hard for some and seen as a blessing by others. It is a necessary part of a growing society, such as the SCA. Almost nothing is the same as it was during the first few years of the Society.

Please take a moment to thank all of our volunteers and youth officers, who have worked so hard for our youth. And when you have a moment, please volunteer to help, teach, mentor, support and create opportunities for our youth to learn, grow and be in service.

In Service to the Outlands,

Lady Jane Barber

(Hint, hint). Rumors come from Ansteorra of young fighters wanting to test their worth against the little Shire that tempered a King.

There will be prize tournaments and competition. We will be feasting on roasted garlic boar, baked birds, green beans, and roasted tubers.

Good people of England,
It is with a sad but determined heart that I, Prince Edmund, must inform you that Æthelred, Saxon king of England, is gravely ill. However, I assure you that no efforts are being spared in driving the Viking invaders back and saving our land from Danish conquest.

You have heard rumors that Canute, having gained the support of Canterbury, is proclaiming himself King of all England. I will not rest until I see this pretender to the throne kneeling before the true King of England!

This is the challenge of our time. I call upon all able fighters and swordsmen, archers and horsemen, artisans, craftsmen, cooks and victualers to come to the aid of our cause. I also call upon tellers of tales and singers of songs to come and witness the struggle and ensure it is not forgotten. Come join our army in London where we prepare to march against the Vikings and put an end to this, and restore the Glory of England!

Edmund, Prince and Son of King Æthelred,
London, March 1, 1016

The great Baroness of Caerthe, Mary of Blackthorn has spent this long, cold winter dreaming of the great fighters of her realm. She sent a missive to the beautiful Baroness of Dragonsspine, Lydia of the Pines, to challenge her to a chess match at the first thaw. At the behest of their Excellencies, fighters will meet on the chessboard of battle to support their most excellent Baronesses. Each move on the chess board by the baronesses will be fought on the tourney field by their fighters.

There will be fencing, we will tell you more later as details become available.

Their Excellencies talents range beyond the battlefield and in this spirit so shall our competitions. A chess tourney will be held throughout the event. POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: CHIEF TECHNICAL OFFICER, SCA INC.

The SCA Inc. seeks applicants for the position of Chief Technical Officer, for a three-year term beginning April 15, 2008. This is a part-time volunteer position requiring technical leadership and a commitment of approximately 10-15 hours per week plus availability for emergencies. The CTO is a direct deputy to the Society Seneschal and Vice President of Operations, and reports indirectly to the Board of Directors by way of an Ombudsman.

The CTO leads a team of volunteers who maintain and manage the SCA's Internet servers for web, email, and related infrastructure services. The CTO team manages the SCA's Internet domains, SSL certificates, and the technical aspects of e-commerce clearinghouse services, and similar aspects of the corporation's online identity. The SCA.org Webmaster reports to the CTO, as do several special project deputies. The CTO may also lead and direct external paid contractors for specific projects or administrative duties.

This position requires both specific technical and interpersonal skills, including:

- Ability to communicate clearly and effectively in writing, including documents and announcements that will be released for public perusal. This position also requires four detailed quarterly reports plus to the Society Seneschal and the Board, plus an annual (Domesday) report.
- * Ability to interact constructively with non-technical clients who use the SCA's online services, including Society officers, Board members, and the SCA's corporate office team.
- * Ability to lead a team of technical volunteers and/or paid contractors to support and enhance the SCA's Internet capabilities.
- + Ability to interact with the Society Chronicler, Society Web Minister, and other corporate level officers to advise on policy issues related to information technology.
- Ability to maintain strict confidentiality of highly sensitive information.
- * Familiarity with the software components and technologies used on the SCA servers. The main components include:
  - + Linux operating system, preferably an RPM-based distribution
  - + MySQL relational database manager (use and administration)
  - + Exim mail transfer agent
  - + Courier IMAP mail server
  - + ClamAV anti-virus software
  - + SpamAssassin and CRM-114 spam filtering software
  - + SquirrelMail webmail client
  - + GNU Mailman list server
  - + Apache 2.x web server
  - + Request Tracker (RT) trouble ticketing system
  - + Concurrent Versioning System (CVS)
  - + SSH terminal and file transfer services
  - + PHP programming language
  - + Perl programming language
  - + Bourne shell script programming
  - + Interchange web e-commerce system

Qualified applicants should have a technical college degree and at least ten years of experience in information technology, or equivalent. Reliable high-speed Internet access, including while traveling, is essential, and ownership of a laptop computer is highly desirable.

The CTO leads and/or implements strategic projects on a largely self-directed basis or as requested by Society officers or the Board. He or she also corrects problems on the SCA servers, sometimes on an emergency basis. The CTO receives multiple daily reports from the servers, including status of important software systems, e-commerce summaries, and security bulletins. These reports need to be monitored on a daily or near-daily basis. The time commitment of the CTO position is approximately ten hours per week normally, but can be considerably larger in the event of problems or major strategic project work. The term of office is normally three years. The job of CTO is a considerable work commitment, but also a very unique challenge seldom found in the corporate world, with a great deal of latitude for technical and strategic creativity.

Interested applicants should send a letter of interest, together with modern and SCA qualifications, hardcopy to Renee Signorotti, Society for Creative Anachronism, P.O. Box 360789, Milpitas, CA 95036-0789, with courtesy copies to resumes@sca.org and cto@sca.org. Applications must be received by April 1, 2008.

Request for Comments

It was requested by the Kingdom Seneschal of Drachenwald if the Board would permit translations to be made of various Kingdom documents of Drachenwald, most notably the Kingdom laws, into several different languages. I was also asked if the Board would agree to have Corpora translated into these same languages.

In order to protect the integrity of these documents, Corpora requires a clause stating which document has primacy in case of conflict between an English language version and a translation.

So as to accommodate both needs, the Board of Directors, at the request of the President of the Society, proposes the following change to Corpora LA.:

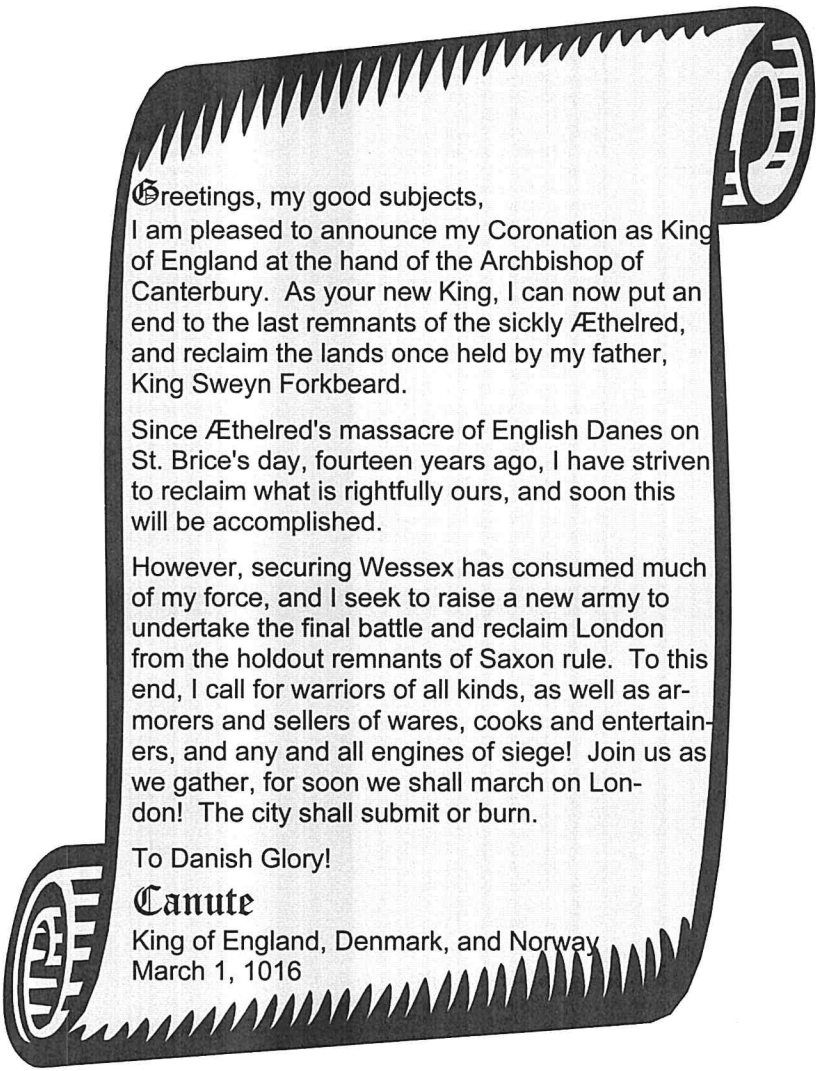
The approved English language version of any SCA document is the official version. In case of conflict between the English language version and a translation into another language, the English language version governs.

The Board of Directors also proposes the following addition to Corporate Policy as Policy XIV: Translation of Corporate Documents

The following clause will be placed in all documents published by the SCA, Inc. or any of its branches, that are translated into a language other than English and contain rules or policies of the SCA, Inc. or that branch:

The approved English language version of any SCA document is the official version. In case of conflict between the English language version and a translation into another language, the English language version governs.

The Board requests comments from the membership regarding this proposed revision no later than July 1, 2008. Please send them to: Corpora Revision SCA Inc. Box 360789 Milpitas CA, 95036, or e-mail to: comments at sca.org.



Greetings, my good subjects,
I am pleased to announce my Coronation as King of England at the hand of the Archbishop of Canterbury. As your new King, I can now put an end to the last remnants of the sickly Æthelred, and reclaim the lands once held by my father, King Sweyn Forkbeard.

Since Æthelred's massacre of English Danes on St. Brice's day, fourteen years ago, I have striven to reclaim what is rightfully ours, and soon this will be accomplished.

However, securing Wessex has consumed much of my force, and I seek to raise a new army to undertake the final battle and reclaim London from the holdout remnants of Saxon rule. To this end, I call for warriors of all kinds, as well as armorers and sellers of wares, cooks and entertainers, and any and all engines of siege! Join us as we gather, for soon we shall march on London! The city shall submit or burn.

To Danish Glory!

Canute
King of England, Denmark, and Norway
